MADRID

Title: PE - Physical Education & Afternoon Program coordinator

Permanente position

Campus La Moraleja

Start date - August 17th 2026

Overview:

Brewster Madrid is seeking an experienced, energetic and innovative PE teacher who develops and implements a powerful student-centered school dedicated to preparing diverse thinkers for lives of purpose.

This opportunity is ideally suited for individuals who have a proven track-record of thriving in a startup environment, enjoy working collaboratively and have successful international teaching/living experience. Finally, we are looking for candidates who demonstrate excellence in the classroom and can help all of our students achieve their full potential as expressed in our Portrait of a Graduate.

Main Responsibilities:

- To organize the extracurricular activities
- To work collaboratively with the founding faculty and leadership team to envision and enact a modern and relevant educational program
- To develop and implement challenging curriculum that prepares our students to thrive in the future
- To differentiate curriculum and assessments as necessary while still maintaining a high level of rigor
- To use design principles to develop curriculum and assessments
- To use technology to enhance learning for all students
- To teach classes in the lower, middle and upper school
- To support school teachers
- To serve as an advisor
- To plan project-based learning opportunities with other faculty members

Desired Qualifications:

- At least 3 years of previous experience in an American/International elementary school
- Attention to detail, innovative and “can-do” attitude
- Exceptional time management skills
- Ability to coach and inspire, especially in relation to children
- Proven success running discussion-centered classes
- Strong writing/communication skills and a proven dedication to teaching analytical writing across the curriculum
- Demonstrated skill working with children

- Multicultural competency and a commitment to inclusivity
- At least a bachelor's degree from an accredited American college or university
- Fluency in English is required; proficiency in Spanish is a plus
- Previous experience living in Spain
- The ability to laugh and to cultivate joy
